In the Corporation Court to-day judgment was rendered in the suit of F. B. Chilson vs. James Thompson and wife, in L.vor of the plaintiff. This was an action brought to enforce a mechanic's lien on a house built by the plaintiff for the defendants. The plea was put in that the house was not built according to specifications and contract.

MR. M'GEE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Wade II. Megee, who died in Richmond from the effects of a fall, causing the fracture of the temple, took place Sunday afternoon from the First Baptist Church, a crowded assemblage gathering to offer sympathy and respect. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Taylor, and Rev. Dr. W. G. Starr, of the Methodist Church. Petersburg Lodge of Elke, of which deceased was a member, attended in a body, contributed a magnificent floral design, and performed the ritual of the order at the grave. Rev. Dr. Starr pronounced a just and beautiful culcsy over the body, paying graceful tribute to his worth as a man, his large-hearted generosity, his integrity of character and his fidelity to family and friends.

Tobacce is coming in very freely this week, and excellent prices, higher than last year, are being realized. With a proper season for handling, the floor of the warehouses will soon be crowded with piles of the weed.

Rev. B. F. Lipscomb, presiding elder of the Petersburg District, preached twice in the city yesterday. He will readle here during his term, but has not yet selected a residence in which to move his family.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY. The West End Baptist Church was the scene of interesting exercises yesterday, the occasion being the celebration of the twenty-fourth anniversary of the organization of the Sunday-school. A fine programme was arranged, and the address was delivered by Hon. Hill Montague, of Richmond. Superintendent T. C. Crowder read a sketch of the school from the time of its organization, giving interesting facts as to its struggles, its growth and development. From a small beginning it has developed into a wonderful organization, spreading good results all around. Starting with only twenty-five officers, teachers and scholars, it now numbers over 350, showing the result of wise management and increasing Christian effort.

The mayor this morning sent on for irial two negro thieves, Charles Chamilers and John Carr, who on Saturday robbed an old colored farmer of $75. One of the parties surrendered $35 as his part of the money. The other has failed to respond to the requests of the police for the return of his share. The dvidence established the guilt of both, and they are promising candidates for the ponitentiary.

Touch With Washington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HAGUE, VA., Nov. 30.—This community is very much interested in a scheme now on foot for connecting us more closely with the cities. The president, vice-president and general manager of the Washington and Norfolk Steamboat Company were lately down here to investigate the matter, and they propose to put up a substantial wharf at King Capsico Point, nearly opposite Blackstone's Island, on the Potomae, and have their steamers stop there every night going both ways, for freight and passengers.

NORFOLK, VA. Nov. 29.—The fines of 500 each imposed by the collector of customs here upon the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company, the Old Dominion Steamship Company and the Southern Railway for working tug boat crews more than twelve hours on a stretch during the marine engineers' strike, will be remitted.

The Department of Commerce and Labor, to whom the proceedings were referred, has decided that the companies were not liable under the circumstances.
The marine engineers are greatly disappointed at losing their case. It is now thought that 1390,000 of the million dollar subscription to the Jamestown Exposition, which must be raised by January ist, will be subscribed by the transportation companies entering here.

The electric railways hereabout will give $100,000 more. A meeting of railway presidents to arrange these subscriptions will be held at the Chamberlin Hotel Thursday.

Storing Up Surprises at the Schwarzschild Store.

"Please Put this away and I'll call for it later," customers are saying. This is the time for storing up Christmas surprises. Dainty gifts are selected at leisure and orders for engraving are given.

The first days of Christmas shopping is here. How gratifying it is that in no previous season has there been so great a demand for jewelry—gift-makers realize that jewelry is the only appropriate gift—and that all jewelry need not be expensive. Whether you wish to spend 25 cents or $1,000, you'll find that something here which will always recall the giver's generosity.

Everything we sell we guarantee. The SCHWARZSCHILD store is handsome and large, but there is not a square inch in it for an unworthy article. The most exacting purchaser is not as particular as we are about the goods we place before them. We have abolished middlemen's profits all along the line. Hence, SCHWARZSCHILD quality is high and SCHWARZSCHILD prices are always low.

The open doors of the grandest jewelry store in Richmond greet you. To-morrow—like yesterday—and each succeeding day, will find happy buyers gayly flocking here. May we not see you to-day? Some gift hints:

GOLD CUFF BUTTONS—In engraved and plain designs. We engrave monogram without charge.

OPERA GLASSES are useful and pretty gifts. They are appreciated by everyone. Pearl and fancy, $5.00 up.

BILVER TOILET PIECES AND SETS. The delicacy and elegance of the designs in these goods appeal to all persons of taste. We know that we sell more of these goods than any other house in Richmond. There must be some reason for it.

LOCKETS, in Silver and Gold; Chains, Fobs, Rings and a thousand other dainty gifts, which we could hardly mention here.

EEAL RINGS have come to stay. They are just what their name suggests—gifts of friendship—$3.00 up.

"Remember, your credit is good here. Just have the article charged and pay for same at your convenience after the holiday pocketbook strain is past. Liberal methods like this have brought us success."

This is the most conveniently situated store in Richmond. In the very heart of the shopping district. All cars transfer to the SCHWARZSCHILD store—

You will find here these experienced gentlemen, who will carefully look to your wants:

BIRDS NOT VERY PLENTIFUL

Nine Coveys Found During Day. Larger Field is Expected for To-day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHASE CITY, VA., Nov. 30.—Ideal weather and good work by dogs kept the large field that followed the field trials to-day in high spirits. The start was not as early as as it should have been, the first brace of dogs being put down at 10 o'clock. Sixteen dogs were entered in the all-age stake, and all were given a trial on birds. At the end of the first series the judges selected eight for further trial. With an early start to-morrow it is expected that the stake will be finished by noon, after which the Derby is hed by noon, after which the Derby will be run.

The first running of the day was by Royal Dot, owned by H. H. McCormick, Berryville, Va., with Rip Field, owned by James Keith, Strasburg. The only bird work done by this brace was one point by Rip Field.

Spotswood Bird, owned by J. R. Purcell, Gainesville, and Bena, owned by Colonebrace down. Bena was best in style and work on game. Keith's Flake, owned by R. L. Gill, Ashiand, ran a fair race with the work on game in favor of Regins.

Ned, owned by R. A. Croxton Danville, and Tony Jing, owned by E. P. Wilkins, Riverton, were a merry-going brace, but they did not do well on game.

General Keilar, owned by C. B. Cook, Richmond, and Bass Furners, owned by G. G. Herring, Harrisonburg, were unfortunate in not finding game.

Sams Jingo, owned by Dr. Leigh Bucker, Roanoke, and Acld, owned by J. R. Purcell, proved the best brace of the day, and both dogs are merry workers and handle their birds well. Unless they are ulmortunate in their next trial they are almost certain of high places in the stake.

are almost certain of high places in the stake.

Sally Kinlock, owned by C. B. Cooke, and Trump, owned by Major Purcell, had the best opportunities on gamo, but did not improve them. Sally found a covey in good style, but on single birds both dogs did a lot of flushing.

Bob Tony ran a bye with Champlen Sports Bay for a trial mate. He found a covey in good style. This ended the running of the first series.

One brace of the second series was started by Royal Dot and Bena. No birds were found during their trial, which ended the running for the day.

Birds are not plentiful, although they are by no means scarce, nine coveys having been found during the day's running. The field to follow the dogs will be larger to-morrow, a number of ladles and gentlemen having come down from Richmond to-day to attend the trials. The judges were C. B. Whitford, of Chicago, and J. C. Tignor, of Richmond. The trials are open to residents of Virginia, owners to handle their dogs. The order of running for the second series is Royal Dot and Bena, Regina with Ned, Bob Tony with Sam Jingo, Acid with Sally Kinlock.

A card party was given at the Meckienburg io-night by the ladies in attendance at the field trials.

BLACKSMITHS STRIKE.

A small strike occurred in the black-smith's department at the shops of the Seaboard Air Line Rallway this morning. All the participants therein were given their time and pay checks and dropped from the rolls.

The strikers were the blacksmith's helpers and their grievance was that while the blacksmiths receive pay for overtime work at the rate of one-half more than for regular hours, no such provision was made for the helpers.

They therefore refused to do overtime work until placed on a proportionately equal footing with the blacksmiths. It was stated at the shops to-day that only about a dozen of the youthful employes participated in the movement, and that all were paid off at once and their places
